

THE SENIOR CITIZEN
Class of '68

Great Neck North
Great Neck, N.Y.
June, 1968

Vickie Adel Lasell Jr. College
To Mrs. Noguee I leave fond memories of her 6th period class.
In 10 years we see Vickie and another nameless one still trying to hide Mr. C.

Lani Adler Northeastern U.
I leave Miss Kanin's 3 period class admitting "though this be madness, yet there is method in it." - Mr. Miller with all our great talks - Miss Schill Jane - Mr. Anderson few classroom texts but much knowledge.
In ten years we see Lani with her life completely enjoy-a-Bill

Debi Barell U. of Cincinnati
I leave Mr. Fields his set of unanswerable questions and a G.I. haircut for D.K.A.
In ten years we see Debi and Glen moving back to the U.S.
after nine blissful years of living in Canada.

Eleanor Baumann Secretarial work
I leave Joann one red, very dignified jelly bean - Nancy
"Marven" with compliments of Joann - Chris one Jefferson Airplane album played at full velocity.
In ten years we see Eleanor sailing with the Merchant Fleet trying to trade an appendix.

Jeff Becker U. of S. Carolina ?
I leave Mr. Messner the writer from "Rowen and Martin's Laugh-in" - Mr. Elliser Randy Frank and best luck in the coming years - Mr. Gabia a bottle of Excedrin.
In ten years we see Jeff as the owner of ten cars traveling the auto circuit.

Neal Belmuth Northeastern U.
I leave Mr. Gabia a copy of PAMS series 27 jingles and Mr.
Love the Sperry Gyroscope company - Mr. Elliser Randy Frank for next year's staff.
In ten years we see Neal and a room full of PAMS jingles.

Neg Benjamin U. of Miami
In ten years we see Neg as a taylor.

Barbara Berg U. of Buffalo
I leave Mrs. Peterson a T.V. set - Eileen 2 forks - Joyce a
I A.M. curfew and a boy who can keep to it - Mr. Black a class with 24 kids.
In ten years we see Barbara as a short-haired model.

Wendy Berk U. of Buffalo
I leave Alisa a roast beef dinner and a hot line between our homes - Vickie some accident insurance - Sharon Bergoy's Manual for future reference - Bonny a reminder to wash her hair the night before she goes to the beach - Joanne a torch to burn those notes already.

In ten years we see Wendy as topcat in the nursing profession and as the maharishi with a vacuum cleaner.

Monte Bernstein U. of Wisconsin

To Eileen Grossman I leave a blue shirt and one pair of dirty socks.

In ten years we see Monte as a sailboat doctor.

Helen Blankstein Hebrew U.-Jerusalem

I leave my classmates the entire Western Hemisphere - enjoy it! To Mr. Messner one piece of chalk more than 1/4 of an inch long
In ten years we see Helen guarding a kibbutz in Egypt.

Don Bloomfield Columbia

I leave Miss Aronowirz a lifetime subscription to the "News of the Week in Review" and a collection of ten biographies of Pres. Eisenhower - Mr. Gabia Excedrin headaches 69,70, 71 - the Guidance Dep't a slightly used Columbia sweatshirt.

In ten years we see Don leading a student strike at Columbia

Amy Brown G.W.

In ten years we see Amy as she stands on the dock ring and catching a bass.

Peter Cavrell Boston U.

I just leave...

David Chaikin U. of Miami

I leave Mr. Totura a "pee hole" in the snow.

In ten years we see David (and Chuck) still working at Chicken Delight.

Robin Chalk Vernon Court

I leave Mr. Kehrig some birdseed and a pet vulture - Mrs. Harrington 20 homerooms to use as she pleases and an absence note.

Wendy Charles U. of S. California

I leave Miss Karin Rudolph Hureyev wearing non-baggy kneed tights - Mrs. Harrington a decent homeroom and a valid excuse - Mr. Miller (Art) a rusty scissors.

In ten years we see Wendy wondering what happened to Bictor and still an extra on Laugh-in.

Amy Chasin Oberlin

I leave (with Jimmy Douglass) Mr. F. up in the hayloft...

In ten years we see Amy barefoot and hair to the floor playing first harpsichord in the Claptonfield Blues Pickle.

Sam Cohen

Stoney Brook U.

I leave Mr. J. Keith Cartee and Mr. M. Elliot Noyes first names - Mr. Bennett the "hall patrol" - Mr. Lincoln some statistics (sic).

Mitch Cohn

St. U. at Genesco

I leave the school bathrooms eight roaches - Mr. Noyes "Spueb Cares" buttons and a bush - Mrs. Harrington a homeroom to enjoy - Mr. Fontanella the next issue of Spueb Herald.

In ten years we see Mitch on the road again.

Skippy Cohn

U. of Oklahoma

I leave Mr. Mandell 10,000 accounts at Macy's.

In ten years we see Skippy eating his heart out after being nosed out in the exacta.

Carol Cone

Skidmore College

I leave A. Miller a gold plated lab coat and an "It shall be noted" notebook and Margie Canton - C. Butera the Heart of Darkness, surprise quizzes and a rat - E. Slater more ready-made Weinberg book tests and a cabinet of unbreakable glassware - the G.N. schools the Chilton Method - Chuck Lewis, wherever you are, two decent ties and regular length pants.

In ten years we see Carol in traction while her husband chases the children (3 colts and 2 fillies) around the house.

Drucie Cordover

Wagner College

I would like to leave to Mrs. Marx the giant deluxe edition of Grimm's Fairy Tales - to Mr. Anderson a magic ECONOMIC MAN costume - Mr. Love and Mrs. Wagner atomic yo-yos to play with - Miss Bamburger a life-sized poster of R.W.

In ten years we see Drucie in long black robes with tall pointed hat, painfully thin, with pointed finger nails, orange skin, holding hands with Theodore.

Jack Covitz

Cornell U.

I leave Mr. Gustav Forster the only cut slip he ever sent.

Sherry Dorfman

Fairleigh Dickenson

I leave Mrs. Rosenstein Terpschiore performances that need no practice nor rehearsals.

In ten years we see Sherry married to Billy and living in a beautiful house in Calif. overlooking the Pacific.

Noah Dorsky

U. of Wisconsin

I leave a belt in the mouth to the weirdo architect who designed the boy's bathroom without doors on the toilets and with strategically placed mirrors.

Laurie Edelman U. of Rochester
I leave Tina a 22 yr. old who wants than to just go out with her - Mr. Anderson "how many pair" - Mr. Shields a 5 P.M. date with "corned beef on white".

Joan Faberman Boston U.
I leave Lovejoy's to the Guidance Dep't. in the hope that they will read it thoroughly.

Randy Farmer Conneticut College
I leave Miss Chrobot her 1959 Math Review Book - Joyce a car door that closes - Eileen a free admission ticket to W.W. - Merrill her ticket to Tel Aviv.

Dena Fish Beaver College
I leave Mr. Bennett to Barbara Rosenwach.

Judith Fryer Washington U.
I leave Mr. Anderson a tube of Crest - Tian butter cookies and grape punch - Jodi B. my gym locker with a new glass door - the gym teachers a dum dum turtle.
In ten years we see Judy teaching business philosophy to an A.A. meeting.

Mark Furth Harvard
I leave the cage a maroon sweatshirt and an empty bottle of 4 Roses - Mr. Brenner, obviously - 9.3% very happy.
In the years we see Mark as a scientist (what else is new?) but with a couch in his laboratory to enable him to give advice to heart-broken women in his spare time.

Andy Gabor Brown U.
I leave Mr. Love 4 replacements of myself in the Jr. class so that they can give him a "hard time in the place of me. Also Mr. Winston a large framed late pass - Mr. Anderson a year's supply of hair spray - Ricky Kurnit a tape recorder.
In ten years we see Andy as a splendid master of a gracious hilltop manor, yet remaining dutiful and self-sufficient for all his wealth does not prevent him from doing the garden - digging up the weeds.

Alisa Gabriel Stoney Brook U.
I leave Wendy the Abominable Snowman - Vickie our special someone - Bonny more Duck Sauce - Sue the lace hair-ribbon - Cheryl a cone and wrinkle cream - Ilene a crepe - Sharon David the hippie - Mr. Turner a war caused by the Republicans - Judy easy to wear contacts.
In ten years we see Alisa making her home at the White Cliffs of Dover and leaping off into the sunset.

Hildy Fleischmann

Russell Sage College

I leave Mr. Cobb my first accurate prediction, his dirty book and a brand new, unused copy of Galbraith's AFFLUENT SOCIETY - Lani always around the corner - Barry Taylor "the lesson" - Jane silly cohen.

In 10 years we see wedded Hildy with wonderful buildy and house fildy with three saddle-shoed childy.

Allen Freedman

Cortland State

I leave Mr. Bennett at least one student who will do the labs for the entire class.

In 10 years we see Allen, of the New York Knickerbockers, giving tips to ball boy Harvey Sanders on ball control.

Sue Freedman

Washington U.

I leave Cheryl a grapefruit knife and the table for the chairs Judy boat fare to St. Louis and uninterrupted telephone conversations and an automatic dog-bringer-homer - Vicki a roommate from Idaho and a return invitation to spend the week - Alisa our 13 yr. old boyfriends and an evening alone - Bonny some unstale potato chips and a 300 bowling game - Eddie a walking encyclopedia and a little black book - Mr. Walsh some very eminent scientists - to Mr. Turner a round ball.

In 10 years we see Sue cooking her favorite dishes, chile and escargots, and following the recipe in their native toungues.

Susan Freedman

George Williams

I leave Dr. Pinter an unbreakable conducting pencil - Ilene three packs of graph paper for next year - Nina an "okay" - Sue Freedman her name.

In 10 years we see Susan climbing Mt. Everest with her mt.-guide husband and taking summers off to le d Man and His Land Expeditions across the U. S.

Janet Garber

U. of Buffalo

I leave Mr. Anderson a complete collection of Ayn Rand books - Mr. Forster a miracle sinus pill.

In 10 years we see Janet taking her 3000th road test and reciting her motto "If at first you don't succeed, try, try, again.

Jane Gartenberg

Beaver College

In 10 years we still see Jane wearing knee socks and crew neck sweaters...on Coheny Island.

Bill Geller

Antioch College

I leave Miss Kamin with something lost and something gained - Lani a heated floor so she can walk around barefoot - the Senior Snack Bar a full staff of sanitary engineers - Mr. Bennett an intelligent, responsive physics class - the football team 10 playings of "Anchors Aweigh" each game - Ricky C. an ultimatum: a good steady beat or it's the bongos! - ENA never - and a lot of room for improvement.

In 10 years we see Billy rambling down the wild and Wooley's path.

Cathy Genkin

Washington U.

I leave Joanne hoping for a lightbulb that stays on - Ricky an undershirt - Lani 64, 66, 68 and much thanks for the "Sounds of Silence" - Merrill one marshmallow banana - Hildy spot remover - Joan alive and well and living and "J'aimais".

In 10 years we see Cathy eating vanilla ice-cream with topping, that is if she's not still "wait-watching".

Ben Gersten

R.P.I.

I leave the school an English Dep't.

In 10 years we see Ben still making people feel good by remembering.

Nina Gimpel

U. of Denver

I leave Mr. Lincoln the gift of prophecy - Mr. Cobb the dove of peace - Mr. Wagner a free, round-trip ticket to Kashmir.

In 10 years we see Nina traveling around Europe on a honda with no money.

Herbert Gingold

George Washington U.

I leave Mr. Olsen a chauffeured limousine to the R.R. station - Mr. Lincoln Katy Dierlam and Tony Doniger - Mr. Borovicka Patty (Murray) Weiss - Mrs. Marx a kitchen - Mr. Thompson Chopin.

In 10 years we see Herbie married to Katy and a great pianist.

Harriet Glaser

Ohio State U.

I leave Lani my lunch - Mr. Fields a ton of Kasha - G.N.N. more teachers like Chuck - Mr. Cobb a 2,000 page "Xeroxed" article to grade.

In 10 years we see Harriet happily sitting at one end of a long cafeteria table - with her dog on one side and HIM on the other.

Micheal O'Rooney Glasser

Harvard

I leave the school one unused mold for a plastic person.

In 10 years we see Mike being the world's first sculptor to live in a garret and not starve; spending his days up to his hips in hot melted butterscotch; with a girl on his arm and three in his hair; being a leading force in the World Peace Movement without having to take any bull from R.; still at Harvard.

Andrea Glicker

Ithaca College

I leave Miss Kamin a handsome, intelligent man who will become her accomplice in her life of crime - Mr. Black enough determination to get him through the Congressional Record - Mr. Anderson a can of hairspray - Mr. Lincoln a matching pair of socks.

In 10 years we see Andy married to J.V. in the filter room and starting on a diet tomorrow.

Nancy Goldberg

Cornell University

I leave Miss Carolee P. Kamin my sanity,

Roy Goldberg

Ithaca College

I leave Larry Rogers one box of no-dose pills or a pillow - to D.K.A. one case of colored chalk, each piece held by a student who's willing to learn - to Mr. Baron a quiet study hall - to next year's seniors a bankrupt treasury.

Elliot Goodman

U. of Miami

I leave Mrs. Marx the newly revised edition of Grim's Fairy Tales - Mr. Brenner an unbreakable intuitive piece of chalk - to Mrs. Ryan Webster's College Dictionary of Old English Words - Mrs. D. of the cafeteria staff a whistle and this year's ARISTA - to Mr. Love, Joe Moterot's telephone number.

In 10 years we see Elliot as a great success.

Christina Griska

Sullivan

I leave to Eleanor Baumann one invidious, invincible, invisible, invasive invader - to Joann a tribble, even though it purrs, and a knitting needle - and to Lency Pogue, Leonard Bernstein's baton.

Eileen Grossman

U. of Miami

I leave Monte Wolfe smooth sailing all the way - Joyce a match that won't flicker - Randy a "short Jons" - Dena a short swim upstream - Barbara R. with a Unicorn - Barbara B. with Friday's ice cream - and Penny with a nickel for a change.

In 10 years we see Eileen as a nursery school art teacher enjoying the company of the lovely children.

Jay Grossman

American U.

I leave a syndrick colandibul to Great Neck North Senior High. In 10 years we see Jay (Chunky) living at Walden.

Meryl Brater

Wheaton

I leave the administration one day of perfect attendance so we can all stop hearing about cutting - and bricks.

In 10 years we still see Meryl traveling.

Lynda Gurvitz

Clark U.

I leave the school some candied tongues to add to the school's collection.

Steven Halpern

U.C.L.A.

I leave Mark H. a job with the Gallup Poll - Mr. Mandel a compatible business staff - Mr. Anderson an invitation to Karen's wedding - to Dennis I leave David - Mrs. Balassone a 45 minute homeroom to take attendance - and to R. Fisher his extra 8 hp.

In 10 years we see 1978.

Vicki Hertzberg

Washington U.

I leave Cheryl pedal pushers, "sex at six", "something she can use next year", Billy and a casual acquaintance - Sue Freedman her blind date - Wendy Berk an orgy - Alisa "our special someone" - Sharon someone she can really trust - Judy her "C"'s.

In 10 years we see Vicki making a hit single of "America the Beautiful" with Jay and the Americans.

Steve Hertzberg

M.I.T.

I bequeath unto my school my Ranger statistics - an 8 x 10 glossy of Bob Dylan and John Ferguson exchanging words and a pass that entitles bearer to one free lift to school from Tony Tuori.

In 10 years we see Zoggy in full Ranger uniform, receiving his doctorate from M.I.T. in statistics before a cheering crowd of Spitzzy, Nabby, Doppy. He calls his mother (walking her up) to tell her the news and she says, "Is that good, Stevie?"

Andrew Heyward

Harvard

I leave G.M.N. a copy of Munro Leaf's Manners Can Be Fun for the cafeteria ladies - a shipment of grass to replace that worn out by children gamboling on the school's lawn - just in time.

In 10 years we see Andy still searching for that perfect, as it were, cliche.

Joan Hirsch

College

I leave Mr. Cobb 50 stars and stripes.

Ilenn Horowitz

Thhaca College

I leave that final "f" and "shut up" - Ellen a permanent "hot line" without phone bills - Cheryl her Italian waiter - Gorden a maple-walnut milkshake - Susie a memory bank to help locate the Jag - Laurie thereturn of our Anacin and a whistle and a penny - Sue a farm boy - Peter an orange striped t-shirt and a hub-cap - Mr. Turner thanx for the "almost" reccommendation - Bonny exit 15 and the football snack bar.

In 15 years we see Ilene eating rhubarb and singing "Danny Boy" and "I Left My Heart in San Fransico" on the Dandy Dan show in Danbury.

Ellen Horowitz

Yvause

In 10 years we see Ellen eating frozen french fries.

Ellen Horowitz

Yvause

I leave to the school some candied tongues to those who have not yet attained it.

Ellen Howard

Syracuse

In 10 years we see Ellen cooking Norton frozen dinners.

Annette Jacob

College

I wish to leave Peace and Happiness to all those who have not yet attained it.

In 10 years we see Annette finally achieving the happiness which at one time was inconceivable.

Jody Jaffe

U. of Virginia

I leave the school in good hands.

In 10 years we see Jody much older and we hope much wiser??

Joyce Jaffe

Cornell U.

I leave the school with the rest of the unique class of '68 and wish the best of luck to the faculty, the administration, the forthcoming classes and the computer.

Suzy Jerome

American U.

I leave a carefully calculated method for catching cutters.

In 10 years we see Suzy still dieting.

Bill Joseph

Case-Western Reserve

I leave G.M.N. two stereo air-raid siren amplifiers - a teacher review board composed of students and time on the new Phipps computers to catch the unmarried teachers mates.

In 10 years we see Bill still walking around making his house plans on a piece of scrap paper.

Cheryl Kallet

Cornell U.

I leave Vickie "Hank" a box of matches, a friendship ring and "96 Tears" - Sue a black and white ice-cream soda with butter pecan ice-cream - Judy a dozen stickers from Cornell - Anne Valentimo and a Vodka Collins - Alisa proof - Ilene a room at Cornell and a can of beer - Carole camp.

In 10 years we see Cheryl as a stowaway on a Merchant Marine ship.

Scott Karson

Stoney Brook U.

I bequeath unto my school $100 of lab equipment - a box of unused razor blades - 2nd place on the NCHL and a bottle of school spirits.

In 10 years we see Scott quitting his job as stick boy for the Long Island Ducks and applying for a position as Under-assistant Wine-taster for the "Guzzling Toad" Corp. or mascot for the I.A. Rams.

Bonny Kellerman

M.I.T.

I leave Ilene a kumquat with a pink bow - Wendy a balance beam and a tennis ball - Adair some tiger stripes - Alisa lots of memories for her memory box - Vickie a good gin hand and a shess beard - Judy co-managership of bowling - Cheryl an exciting part in the play for final night - Laurie an understanding of calculus.

In 10 years we see Bonny as a race car driver and a Peteyatrician.

Judy Kloogman

Cornell U.

I bequeath to Victoire a 19th grade schedule and 10 new fingers - Cheryl an invitation to my sweet-sixteen - to Freedman a canal joining the Mississippi and Lake Cayuga, butter and garlic sauce and a Soc.St. report - Sue her by-lines in the N.Y. Times - Ellen a one-way ticket to D.C.

In 10 years we see Judy eating chocolate ship cookies while plowing her farm in Gary, Ind.

Nancy Kollish

Cornell U.

I leave to the school the contents of a fetal pig's intestines with, of course, the permission of the District Dietrician. Also a quartet of red-heads and a bearded zoologist to share with Partha.

Paul Formel

Stoney Brook U.

I bequeath unto my school soul- Arore Crackers - raisons with cream cheese coating.

In 10 years we see Dolph "doing his own thing" as lead singer of the soulful "5Tops" a group that now gives B.B. exhibitions when not "working-out" at the Apollo Theatre.

Suzanne Koppelson

Syracuse U.

I leave Mr. Binkly 30 labs before the year is over.

In 10 years we see Suzy as a 250 lb. weight-lifter.

Candy Kovner

Wheaton College

I leave Mr. Sorgen telling jokes and playing the piano - Mr. Fields sitting in a hot tub after playing tennis and quoting Hamlet at the same time - and together with Sue T. all the food we've taken during lunch.

In 10 years we see Candy making a fortune in the sun-reflector business.

Carole Krugman

Boston U.

I leave the kids at my lunch table talking to each other - Anne a new pair of shoes - Lindy the 10th grade Soc. final - my hair, cut short.

In 10 years we see Carole finally looking 17 years old.

Ricky Kurnit

Columbia

I leave the school outdoor classrooms - a powerful G.O. - student say in curriculum, rules and other things that pertain to the students and finally this thought "the school exists solely for the students".

Steve Kurzrok

Washington U.

I leave Mrs. Harrington a bowl of chicken soup - Mr. Anderson the third world - Mr. Kehrig a stack of the past fifty years of the N.Y. Times Current Events Tests and a new pen for grading - Mr. Love a hard time. To Mr. Morrison I leave a Badminton racquet without that "hole" in the center that he might finally beat some of his students and a day in which Paul will actually come to class.

In 10 years we see Steve as an intern at Great Mud Swamp U. Medical School (Lower Quicksand Campus).

Donald Eayton

MIT

I leave Mr. Cobb a hairbrush - Mr. Brenner Shlomo's little brother - Mr. Anderson John Kenneth Galbraith - the school hopes for a student parking lot.

In 10 years we see Donald as pre. of Eayton Chemical Corp., playing the role of the "Happiest Millionaire."

Gordon Leavitt

Harpur College

I hereby bequeath to Mr. Brenner a size 32 belt - Mr. Love a zapping electron and one elastic collusion - Dr. Isaac the correct answer - Mr. Fields a 10 minute negotiation.

In 10 years we see Gordon 350 lbs. of blubber and muscle... eating a hero sandwich...in an old undershirt...in front of a T.V. set. Licking the crumbs off the plate, he turns to type a few chapters of his book. Getting bored he retires to nap...needing at least 1 hr. of sleep to stay in top condition.

Steven Lesk

Clark U.

I leave this school 1,400 of Eliot's (T.S.) eyes - Mr. Love a 10,000 ohm resistor with trimmings - Mr. Fields immortality and Miss Kamin a sunny day.

In 10 years we see Steve still sitting on the top of the ladder on stage as a professional banjo player.

Ellen Lieblein

U. of Denver

I leave Mr. Cobb a year's supply of cut slips and Daley buttons - Mr. Fields a large supply of provocative questions - Miss Bamburger my dirty socks.

In 19 years we see Ellen living in a Boston apartment overlooking her husband's textile factory...helping him pay for her diamond necklace by sewing for his clients.

Matty Liebowitz

Syracuse

In 10 years we see Matty sailing the 7 Seas...searching.

Margie Malamed Boston U.
I leave the school Temple Beth-El's parking lot.
In 10 years we see Margie skiing down the liftline at Stowe.

Jack Mancus R.P.I.
I leave Mr. Miller one rotten Ruderman, fed three times a day - Miss Kamin admitting that Hamlet II.33.556 - Mr. Scott one more Mancus - Rotten a one way ticket to Penn. - G.N.N.
finally.
In 10 years we see Jack in his lab technician's coat...
busily working in a butcher's shop.

Gale Maurer F.I.T.
Sadly, I leave Mr. Miller.

Alan Mayer Columbia
I bequeath unto my school "the hook" for the deserving multitudes - a BAA jacket with a big "I" (also worn by Zog) - my lactosse stick.
In 10 years we see Alan making N.B.C. Radio announce its regrets at the untimely demise of its fact-man, Brad Crandall and reveal the name of his successor...Alan Mayer.

Elaine Mokotoff Vassar College
I leave to R.R. "Armo virumque cano" c/o M.L. and to Mr.
Brenner a homeroom that begins at 11 o'clock.
In 10 years we see Elaine wearing a jayde wedding ring.

Bob Motchkavitz Tulane U.
I leave one "woe" to D.A.P. - the H.P. to Mr. Bennett - my right kidney to Mr. T. - a sock in the belly of a cat - one knee tap to H - a pitching wedge and the book How to be an Easy Teacher to Mr. Turner - a bottle of Q.T. to Mr. Brenner - red hair dye to Mr. Noyes - a clothes coordinator to Mr. B.

Ed Myerson College
I leave Mr. Winston a protractor so he can teach more precisely - Mr. Ring an IBM card with the names and owners of all cars in N.Y. to avoid certain P.A. announcements.
In 10 years we see Eddie living in Great Neck and driving to work in the City.

Sherry Nager Bradley U.
I leave the senior class of next year the problem of parking on a cold, snowy day.
In 10 years we see Sherry playing tennis with the pros at Forest Hills.

Peter Newberger

American U.

I leave the school hoping that I share with Mr. Lincoln and others the hope that the war in Viet Nam will come to a speedy end.

In 10 years we see Peter's Peaceful Players touring in South East Asia in direct opposition to the U.S.O.

Susan Parnes

Bradley U.

I leave Miss Bamberger one embarrassing moment as the result of someone's fit of anger.

In 10 years we see Sue broadcasting for the New York Yankees.

Melissa Pashcow

Vassar College

I leave Mr. Turner a complementary ticket to the Repub. Convention - Mr. Miller fame and fortune from BHT - Mr. Walsh table jolly, mable and popalopin - Mr. Fields a classical tragic hero - Mrs. Osborn a complete correct translation of Book I of Julius Caesar's Commentarii de Bello Gallico.

Jonny Plasse

Harpur College

I leave a white shirt and a pair of black sox to Mr. B.

Nancy Pogue

Mt. Holyoke

I leave to Joann one genuine "grenouille" - Sanga to Chris - amicable alligator to Eleanor.

Cheryl Puro

U. of Maryland

Till a student smoking longue is officially built I leave this school an invisible one.

In 10 years we see Cheryl still listening to Simon and Gaffunkel.

S Sharon Pötterman

Syracuse U.

I leave to Mr. Turner my disgarded liberalism and a 10 day supply of patriotism pills - Alisa a crated papanoid - Vickie a gossipless column - Wendy a painless puncture and P. Vulgaris - Joanne 10,000 Soc. notes - Mr. Miller an isolated microorganism - Melissa loyalty to lab partners - Sari long-haired nice boys.

Joanne Rashbaum

Northeastern U.

I leave Mr. Cobb a multi-colored uncovered cake in the Aud. - Mr Turner an American flag and a book on liberal foreign policy - Cathy a year's supply of lightbulbs - Wendy a litter of kittens.

In 10 years we see Co living in a well-lit home...able to walk anywhere without people looking and wondering and commenting ...still caring very muck.

Nora Raum

Temple U.

I leave Mr. Messner some chalk.

In 10 years we see Natasha independently wealthy and living in Rome.

Joann Resnick

U. of Toledo

I leave Mr. Cobb still playing catch-the-cutter.

In 10 years we see Joann still disgusted with the whole crowd.

Stexen Rosenstain

Northeastern

I leave Mr. Love a year's supply of Sperry Gyroscope instruction sheets - Mr. Gabia a year's supply of Compoz".

In 10 years we see Steve involved in several scientific persuits blowing up his basement...burning his lawn...and trying to find the near meaning of "swissle" in case anyone ever asks.

Barbara Rosenwach

Syracuse U.

I leave Dena a complete summer wardrobe and my black patent leather shoes - & Wralffe a date who will pay for the entire cab fare.

Chuck Rubin

Cornell U.

I leave Mrs. Fox one black MG door handle and another course with Mary and Dr. Brook - Mrs. Melnicki's son an ample supply of Tri-nitro-toluene.

In 10 years we see Chuck as a money-winning Bridge professional along with Goren, Sheinwold, and Kurzrok.

Debbie Rubin

Mt. Holyoke

I leave Mr. Brenner a Donny Layton if Doug Lubin won't do - Mr. Cobb an Anderson-Kehrig ticket for '68 and an American flag - Mr. Bennett a class of Freds - Jeff a golf club on Wednesdays - Ed a dark corner - Suzy fried chicken and Ravioli with water.

In 10 years we see Debbie with a happy ending to her soap opera.

Marvin Ruderman

U. of Penn.

I leave Mr. Elliser Great Mud Swamp U. and Mr. Smiley - Mr. Love Mr. Sirow and some fantastic fellow creatures but it maka-no-diff - Senorita Sonders an old "meanie" sign - Mr. Miller one scholarship to Mancus Inst. for Today (MIT)

In 10 years we see Marvin as a monk-in-residence at Franklina and Marshall College, handing out Arista model cards to the local female population.

Lynne Rudwick

Harpur College

I leave Mr. Wegrig a "tested" law that hasn't been broken - Mrs. Fox a class that has prepared for a lab.

In 19 years we see Lynne as undefeated regional bridge champion of the world.

William Shapse

Albany

I leave Mr. Bennett a difference of potential - Mrs. Melnicki an answer book with all right answers.

In 10 years we see Bill in his first year of Surgical Residency at Abshire Hospital under the skilled supervision of Dr. Gillespie.

Tina Schwartzbaum

George Washington

I leave Mr. Anderson a Sears Roebuck automatic name-speller machine - Laurie Hester's Rock - Nina a body guard for her C.C. - Adair a permanent knee pad.

In 10 years we see Tina leaving her rambling country home and returning to Mexico to teach English in the school she and her husband built and still flapping.

Teri Shindleman

Quinnipiac

To Mr. Villemaire I leave one book of correct proverbs.

Bonnie Siegal

Simmons

I leave next year's Seniors all the Senior Privileges we enjoyed this year.

In 10 years we see Bonnie still listening to Simon and Garfunkel.

Peter Siegel

U. of Mass.

I leave Mr. Anderson a mouthfull of marbles - Mr. Lincoln a dictionary and a speech therapy class.

In 19 years we see Peter twirling his chin-length moustache gaping through a telescope, grossing out his fellow astronomers at the observatory. It is now Dr. Siegel, renowned for his moon explorations and tall tales...each one greater than the last. He works 3 hr. a day, 2 days a week 20 wks. a year every alternate yr. This gives him time for contemplation.

Mitzi Silverman

George Washington

I leave Mr. Villemaire a shy-blue pink KK-E and Andy Sideman a pre-gummed Isky Cam sticker.

In 10 years we see Mitzi as a skinny 28 yr. old.

Richard Sirow

Case Western-Reserve

I leave Mr. Elliser Mr. Rudder.

In 10 years we see Richard an engineer.

Todd Smirnow

U. of Pitt.

I bequeath unto my school a coin hockey instruction booklet - 26 Yodels and longer toilet paper.

In 10 years we see Todd 27 yr. old, in Europe, still searching.

Gordon Solodar N.Y.U.
I leave the school a winning Model U.N. Committee with two very capable chairmen for next year.
In 10 years we see Gordon as Ambassador to the U.S.A. from Israel.

Dennis Someck Cornell U.
I leave Laurie Gurwin for Mr. Anderson - Mr. Love a "perceptive man" - I just leave...

Paul Sussman Oberlin College
To Mr. Cobb I leave an accurate election poll.
In 10 years we see Paul still making arguments with Mr. Cobb.

Joan Susswein U. of Mich.
I leave the school my brother Donald to carry on the tradition.
In 10 years we see Joan singing jingles for Gleen toothpaste on nationwide T.V.

Eric Tashman U. of Penn.
I leave Mr. Love some ASTUTE PERSPICACITY and a f-a-n-t-a-s-t-i-c- and Jimmy Rand a pair of good ankles and a basketball.
In 10 years we see Eric walking paw in paw with his P.W. (F.D.) and looking up to his kids.

Barry Taylor U. of Miami
I leave to Judson Lincoln one purple polka-dotted tie one green spread collar shirt, one maroon double-breasted big boy's suit, one pair of fire-engine red sox, and a cute pair of sandals with a space for his big toe.
In 18 years we see Barry still driving around with his friend his 1968 Le Mans. He will be wearing his new yellow-dotted Nehru shirt and his sandals, still telling his listeners that he has never been drunk, no matter what he drinks.

Sue Tulchin Russell Sage
I, along with Candy, leave the school all the food we've stolen during lunch.
In 10 years we see Sue being an unsuccessful, frustrated go-go dancer at the Metropole Cafe.

Marsha Vinson Goucher
I leave my gym locker combination.
In 10 years we see Marsha on the U.S. Olympic Team.

Adair Waldenberg Northwestern
I leave Mr. Elliser many 3R layout forms and a carrier pigeon to mail Arista envelopes. - Mr. Cobb a piece of uncovered, multi-colored cake - Miss Budinski an argument.

In 10 years we see Adair as the lay-out editor of a new magazine Perfect Cakes and Flowers also author of that popular novel, the Strange Habits of Rabbits.

Nancy Weberman Case Western-Reserve
I leave the school a diet soda machine.
In 10 years we see Nancy sitting down to eat a "legal" meal.

Barbara Weinberg U. of Mich.
I leave to Mitch, Mickie, Mitch and Penny all the G.O. fun to experience. I leave a graduation present to "Dummit" of a quart of Kriegel's chocolate-chip ice-cream smothered in caramel, fudge and marshmallow sauces.

Lisa Weinberg Oberlin
I leave Mr. Cobb free foreign films to be shown monthly for the enlightenment of his children
In 10 years we see Lisa as art critic for the New York Times

Judi Winston U. of Toledo
I leave Mr. Slater a senior class of his own teaching civil disobedience - Mr. Sadoff sadly - Mr. Cobb the good ole U.S.A. - Mr. Shields a Mezzuzah for good luck.

Michael Wolff U. of Miami
Being of sound mind and body, I leave Miss Kamin an unlisted phone number.

Randy Wolfer Northwestern
I leave Mr. Printz a year's credit of Mr. Shield's art supplies as well as an opening in the Attendance Office staff for Dr. Isaac.
In 10 years we see Randy making the first computer sculpture.

Anne Wurman Albany
I leave Joanne an upsidedown Soc. note - Mr Turner an American flag and a full year course in liberal foreign policy - Debbie Rubin a happy ending to her soap opera - Cheryl, Peter, and Paul a homemade applesauce-raisin cake.

Joann Zeltner Harpur
I leave one French rabbit to Nancy - Y.B. and all his possessions to Chris and "fantastic" to Eleanor.

Nancy Zirinsky Emory U.
I leave to the class of 69 enough apathy to get through next year.

Mr. Brenner leaves a "completely integrated calculus class - a free ticket for every movie in which ZaZa Gabor appears to Andy Gabor - a lifetime supply of Westinghouse lightbulbs to Mark Furth - a lifetime guarantee that "I will use no other electronic repairman to Ricky Sirow - a bottle of No Doze pills to Steve Schiff - a lifetime supply of yellow absence excuses to Homeroom 229 - a lifetime supply of "problem sheets" at the rate of one per month to my calculus class"

Mrs. Harrington leaves "a freshman year of good health, long mornings for sleep and days off for writing papers and studying for tests and to the students of today a world completely of their own terms."

Dr. Isaac - To my Triple I Calculus Class I leave my final ounce of strength and this thought: Our endeavor together reawakens my reaction to my army service. I know I haven't the energy to go through it again, but it certainly was an experience. To Paul K. I leave a well sharpened No.2 pencil - to Bob F. a private tutor to respond to each and every "But I don't understand" - to several boys I could mention I leave a pair of socks.

Mr. Liguori - To that loyal band of Seniors in the Humanities, I leave the knowledge that you will always be in my mind with fond memories of your contributions - to the Senior Class I would bequeath an extra month in the school calendar so that "Senioritis" could begin one month earlier than Sept.

4
Mr. Love ^{I L E A V E T O Y O U M Y B E S T}
36 48-20-4-88-20 80-60 100-60-84 52-100 8-20-76-80
92-36-76-32-20-76 24-60-72 100-60-84-72 24-84-80-84-72-20
32-20-4-48-80-32 4-56-16 32-4-64-64-36-56-20-76-76- Hint 26

Mr. A. Miller leaves to all of his students cans of room spray deoderant and animals that don't smell - to his Laboratory Tech. seniors his love and sincerest appreciation for their outstanding performance in initiating and making Lab. Tech. the successful course that it is - to Noah Dorsky he leaves a bottle of tranquilizers when making blood analysis.

Mrs. Sears leaves "to June Levine my law abiding characteristics - to Melanie a desire to experiment with shorter hair - Eleanor B. some ideas on how to out wit all her big brothers - to Michelle F. some of my satisfaction with work in the clothing field - Sue K. ways means of being heard when she has bright ideas - David Chaiken and Dan Stillman some of my ideas of what makes a man handsome - to Errol Gumer some power to rewrite the textbook in Bachelor Arts!"

Mr. Slater leaves Sam Cohen editor of all future scrap books at G.NM Al Kogel one doz. large paper bags from the A and P - Al Kogel ten more paper bags to take his clothes to college and a towel to wipe his head with so he won't catch cold after showers.

Mr. Thompson To the graduation members of the Orchestra, Bad and Stage Band I bequeath me continuous love and respect.

REMEMBER...

the drug survey...with the cameras in the cafe...bangles...a rainy march 5th morning...summer of 66...blue and yellow raincoats...a football award...psssssst!...when we got our macbeth tests back from chuck...sex education in health...eileen's blazing birthday...a lunch table that would stay put...recontering l'histoire for me. Hoffman...pricking yourself in lab. tech...."function"...skis in an open convertible...july 14...when we left beer cans in robin stone's backyard(tree)...annette's laugh...Mr. borovicka's smile...mr. noyes' clandestine corners...jane's obsession with skulls... "this is my school"...we did things on the lawn...bah-mah...win-bah...erk friedfish...the outstanding marks the "hall patrol" got on mr. bennett's tests...Poetry readings by you-know-who...mr. frey's departure...when attendance in school was mandatory...the triple entente...andre morillon and his pregnant grasshopper...b.r.a. ...d.i.g...when chuck blessed us with an appearance...when the rebel flag was burned on middle neck rd...when Dan asked miss chrobot "is this a quizee or a testee?"...the not too bright chem student who after finding the melting pt. of paradichlorobenzine poured it down the drain...when andy asked mr. miller why he killed the fetal pig...kenny's lost cowboy hat...the waring blender that can make w.w. walteds that taste like kregel's ice-cream...kitchen floors...dog w lks...the magic word...a.a...basketball games...wet sleeves after having key club duty at those b.b. games...g.o. offices...wednesday morning football games...the day steve baron went ot fifth period study...200 cold wetson hamburgers after the school picnic...sweet 16's...physical (pant) fitness tests...bibliography cards...mr. winston and the late pass...what senior movie...the belle from from buffalo...coed square dancing...the wedding in the gym...filbertius the obnoxious, but we loved him anyway...school food...wade...opal pierced earrings...the garbage can...coffee ice*cream sodas...jr. players notices...vanilla ice-cream... "what i say"...mr. fisher, rick posner, dan stillman under the nonnlight...judd's faggots...rainy football games but the band played on...three cheers and a wet classroom for mr. d...moping and grines about moby grape...the prom party sleep-in...miss rochlin's music lessons...mrs. marx stories...11th grade term papers...the walks from parkwood pool...the walks to parkwood pool...our busy wednesday ...when g.n.n. students turned into bushes;;;freezing in humanities...kathie and d.k.a...billy and m.c.k...the way to the dump..."chlorox"... "trebs"...dray's first goal...al's hook...dolph's rendition of "ain't too proud to beg"...deech's beard...wheels prowess in basement hockey...meau's 62 chevy...the "hook"...national honor society scandal...dots games...the magyars...show and tell with mr. b...chilton-didier...tomato juice...will power... "the silent night"...sortie sighs...vivre pour vivre...child's...elephants...g.n.e. park by the water...bagels for breakfast...methy...the fifth top...wralffe...pierced ear-ritz...the day mr. baron kept us after school on the last day...harmonizing in the halls...peanut butter cookies...tickets to the school concert...monthly...playguy trips...checking the blind spot...digging ditch...i...

es...chem tutorials after school so that we ~~can~~ could pass the re gents...betsy wetsy...bridge games for a quarter...3I chips off t he old block...d.k.a.ski trips...ouija boards...la toska...miss smith's pointer...s.t.a.m.p...waiting in line for sat. morning te sts...getting back scores in the auditorium..."all those who took the ___ in ___ please come to the aud. after school to obtain score s"...red and brown tiled floors..."bong"...BRICKS...thumper..."th is is true..."...sunbaths...running around the gym II times...lea aves in mr. torgerson's pockets...sigfried and kovfried...candle and rope...mr. lincoln's passionate outbursts at g.o. meetings... peter berk and roberts rules of order...five different principals in six years...mr. noyes' vests...mr. reilly's moustache...dave paley's immortal words "you're a swell guy, mr. d."...nchl banquet s...anderson vs. cobb debates...mrs. hoffman and her 9th, eighth o r seventh time slot class that she never came to anyway...checkin g for dead bodies...when the fate of the "hall patrol" rested bet ween the covers of a lab book...when Mike lapidus wouldn't go int o the water without his water-wings...when the flutz had a first name...spotty pasha in the sky..."the balcony king"...April 1st w hen everybody watched...buying a hebrew national salamis for mr.
pierzga...lightbulbs...perfectly nice flowers...rabbitt habits... multi-colored cakes...frustration...friday absence lists...senior privileges?...?...Great Mud Swamp U...when g.n.n moved to w.w. on thursday night...one had a name and another had a heart...don' t shed a hare on me.... listening to the natives chant "shiff, sch iff, schiff..."...when Barbara introduced the g.o. treasurer as eric tashman...when we had the nassau county narcotics squad to i nvestigate the bomb scare...when spueb got formal recognition in one of mr. noyes' speeches...when barry stood up straight...those late play rehearsals..."tip-toe through the tulips..."...grubby.
..two-ton tessie and five ton phyllis...goldfish came to stay...
lavendar-green cakes...safety pins...temple israel dances... lunch ladies...april 15, 1967...april 15, 1968...Mr. Kral and "get backin your cages"...miss moll...soc. and eng term papers on the same vacation...andy gabor's sweatshirt, from what college?..
getting the big picture...principal of the year...the savages...
r.w.h.b... chicken fat...a man and a woman..."plase disregard th e firebells...when south got out and we didn't...student administ ration day when we finally found out how much the teachers really take...the derunian-wolff debate...viet nam week...eddy and the pie eating contest...block classes...what senior prank..."that wa a the week that was"...the real lyrics to louie-louie...cut slips
...the senior snack bar that couldn't serve coffee or tea...a 7 period day...2 oz. 4 oz. 6 Oz....t e world's fair...s.k.f...
del's pizza...walking...JUNE 21, 1968...